

THE MAXINE AND JONATHAN MARSHALL SPEAKER ON RELIGION AND CONFLICT

A CRISIS IN AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY?

HOW SCHOLAR-PRACTITIONERS CAN ENGAGE THE CURRENT MOMENT

LECTURE BY

DAVID GUSHEE

Nazi Germany.
Apartheid in South Africa.
The civil rights movement in America.

These are just a few times when social and political conditions became so toxic that it seemed immoral for religious and scholarly leaders to adopt the position of disengagement or neutrality.

Join us as David Gushee, one of the premier Christian ethicists in the world, reviews the story of religious resistance to the Nazi co-optation of the German church and engages the current moment in the United States to ask what role Christians, scholars of religion, and citizens should play in times such as this.

David Gushee (Ph.D., Union Theological Seminary, New York) is Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics and Director of the Center for Theology and Public Life at Mercer University. The author or editor of twenty-five books, he is the former president of the American Academy of Religion and the Society of Christian Ethics.
